About Me

"Ciao a Tutti, Il mio Nome è Stefania ..."

I was born in Sicily, but many years ago Fate led me to Tuscany, where I've been living and working as Italian Tutor, Tour Leader and Wine Tasting Expert since 2011.

Let's talk About Me! After my Grants in Berlin and Mannheim, and my Job Experiences in the U.K., I graduated in Humanities and Foreign Languages -English and German-at the University of Palermo. At that time I travelled a lot, then I came back home and worked as Tour Leader in Palermo. During that Unforgettable Chapter of my Life, I met lot of Foreign People who Adored Italy for several reasons. I found amazing and interesting I was an Italian Native Speaker, and I could do something for Visitors who wanted to Discover Italy. It was time to turn That Fortune into a Job, and so therefore I was the Co-founder of "I Fiori Blu di Sicilia", an Italian School for Foreigners in Palermo, which still exists. Since then my Passion about Italian Language and Culture goes on by My Own in Tuscany. Was it a Choice or a Chance? No Idea! Honestly, it doesn't matter. I would do it all over again, because it brought me to an incredible city like Pisa! Learning New Languages, Exchanging Cultural Experience, Travelling made me view the World with a Different Lens. This provided Alternative Perspectives! It broadened My Horizons and Made me Happy too.

WINE BLOGGER

My Wine Posts are dedicated to Wine Lovers & to Wine Readers to:

- speak about Best Wine Heritage of Tuscany and of other National/ International Places;
- recommend Top Wines and Wineries for your General Entertainment or for your Next Travel Destination !

If we Learn Something about Wine that will be a Happy Side Effect! I believe telling stories about a Wine helps remove it from the realm of high status, where all we know about it is the price!

I am not going to pretend that Wine is actually very straightforward. It isn't. It's a vast and still mysterious subject, which is why it is so interesting. Unfortunately for the general reader, many writers feel the need to demonstrate their education. I have a great advantage here of not knowing that much. I am learning the whole time, but I will try to never bore readers with newly-acquired facts about precipitation levels and soil types!
